Instructors

Christoph Sommer is a Certified Advanced Rolfer™ and teacher of the European Modular Format at the European Rolfing® Association. He has been practicing in Munich since 1986.

Additional training in fascia- and membrane technique (Peter Schwind) and visceral osteopathy (J.-P. Barral) has lead him to broadening the classic structural perspective. With a refined spectrum of touch - communicating with the inner human shape - his work aims at enhancing the potential for movement and human selfexpression in the context of gravity.

Paola Volpones is a Certified Advanced Rolfer™, International Rolfing® and Rolf Movement™ Instructor. She first certified as Rolf Movement™ practitioner and then as Rolfer™. Since 1986 she runs her practice in Italy.

Her continuing education was built attending Rolfing® workshops with Jeff Maitland, Jan Sultan, Michael Salveson, Peter Schwind and also the visceral manipulation workshop with Jean Pierre Barral, Didier Prat, Alain Croibier. Her Rolf Movement™ background had been enriched by the teachings of Hubert Godard.

Konrad Obermeier is a Certified Advanced Rolfer™ and Rolf Movement™ Practitioner. He is member of the Life Sciences Faculty of the Rolf Institute (USA) and Anatomy Instructor for the European Rolfing® Association.

He is practicing as Rolfer™ in Munich since 1991 and teaches workshops in Visceral Manipulation and Embryology. Over the past 20 years he has contributed in different settings to the educational processes of Rolfing® Cranio-Sacral Therapy, Visceral Osteopathy, Continuum Movement and Yoga.
