

Back to Basics

Reviewing the Rolfing® Touch

2-day-workshop for Rolfers™

Instructor: Pierpaola Volpones

April 13 - 14, 2019, Munich

This is a 2-days workshop that aims to:

- refresh the basics of Rolfing Touch in terms of tools, variety of touch, body use, attention and intention,

- explore and experiment how to reach and approach different fascial layers,

- evoke, promote and recognize a positive response of the connective tissue.

Back to Basics emerges from the need to explore how to stay connected with the manual roots of our work.

A clear and clean touch, supported by a good body use, is the prerequisite to apply any more complexed technique together with being able to stay oriented in the tissue web, while acting and listening,

The workshop is taught by

Pierpaola Volpones,

Certified international Rolfing® and Rolf Movement™ instructor.

“Rolfing® has been my fulltime profession since I graduated in 1986 and still it is my passion and main interest.

Teaching Rolfing® is also my passion; I completed the teacher training in 2006 and since then, besides my Rolfing® practice in Italy, I teach Rolfing® and Rolf Movement™ trainings and workshops.”
